

RIDICULOUS

GOING DEEPER AT HOME

NOVEMBER 21: A RIDICULOUS RECOVERY

At one point in our journey with God we had a strong and vibrant faith, we believed God could do anything, we were excited about Jesus, but something happened and now we aren't so sure anymore. We still come to church, but we've lost that fire, that passion for Jesus. Or maybe some of us never had that, we believe in God, we believe that Jesus is His son, sent to earth to save us and all that stuff, but there's no excitement, there's no passion. Or maybe we feel that we've failed too miserably in our faith that there's no coming back. If any of these seem to describe you, this may be the most ridiculous story for you. We see that God is all about ridiculous recoveries.

SCRIPTURE:

2 Kings 6:1 - 7

GOING DEEPER QUESTIONS:

1. What is a time you failed? How did that experience impact you?
2. What is something from the message that stood out to you, was new to you or challenged you?
3. Respond to the statement "God is all about ridiculous recoveries." Is this true? Why or why not?
4. Share a time when God helped you find something you didn't mean to lose. What did you learn from your experience?
5. What things in your life most often cause you to lose your spiritual edge & why? (Failure, discouragement, other people, etc)
6. If you feel like you've lost your spiritual edge, where do you think you might have lost it?
7. Recovering a lost axe head may not seem like a big deal to some of us, but it points to how God cares about the small details in your life. How does this truth impact you & your relationship with God?
8. How is the the Holy Spirit inviting you to respond? What step(s) of obedience can you start taking today to get your spiritual edge back?
